"Culver's has a rich history of giving back to our communities in times of need. These are our communities and our guests that are affected," says Phil Keiser, President and Chief Operating Officer. "Raising badly needed funds for food, shelter, and emotional support during these difficult times is part of the Culver's True Blue spirit. We hope our loyal guests come out and make this happen in a big way," he adds.

Many of Culver's restaurants have been involved in disaster relief efforts on the local level this spring through percent of sales days, donation canisters and other methods. The "Day of Giving" will complement those ongoing efforts.
