Singer-songwriter Audrey Assad is a Christian music artist of Catholic faith. At the age of two, she began playing piano, and today, her musical career has taken off. Assad has worked and toured with other contemporary Christian music artists such as Chris Tomlin and Matt Maher. In 2009, Assad signed with Sparrow Records, and a year later, she released her first album, The House You're Building, which was Amazon.com's "Best Album of 2010" in the Christian Music category and soon reached #12 on the Billboard Christian Albums chart. Also upon the album's release, Assad became the best selling new artist in the Christian Music category of 2010 according to SoundScan.
